

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

VOL. 4--NO. 195.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY JULY 9, 1885.

PRICE ONE CENT.

CLEARANCE SALE

OF

SUMMER DRY GOODS!

RUNYON & HOCKER will offer, on Thursday evening, July 9, of their stock of Zephyr Dress Ginghams at 10 cents, reduced from 12½ and 15 cents; 10 cent Dress Ginghams, 8 cent; 10 cent Plain Printed Linens reduced to 10 cents; 10 cent Printed Goods, 9 cent quality, reduced to 25 cents; 25 cent quality reduced to 20 cents; Plain Neat-burn Embroideries at much less than their recent low price.

Blue and Pink Ribbed Linen Hose reduced to 75 cents, former price, $1.25; Blue and Pink Stockings, former price, 65 cents; Black and Colored Cotton, 10 cent quality, reduced to 8 cents; Colored Woolen Stockings, Hosiery Stockings, Corsets and Ladies' Leather Bags at much less than their recent low price.

The entire balance of our Summer Stock must be closed within the next fifteen days to

An early call will receive the best selection. Terms CASH.

RUNYON & HOCKER,

Second Street, Maysville.

AT THE

Cheap Cash Store

WE ARE NOW OFFERING EVERYTHING IN THE LINE OF WASH GOODS AT A DECIDED REDUCTION FROM FORMER PRICES, AS WE ARE DESIROUS OF CLOSING OUT THE LINE DURING THIS MONTH. CALL AND SEE THE GOODS AND LEARN PRICES. NO TROUBLE TO SHOW THEM.

BROWNING & BARKLEY

SECOND ST., ENTERPRISE BLOCK.

WE OFFER

CHAMBER SUITS!

The Newest and Best Styles, forty different styles Bureaus, seventy-five different styles Bedsteads, a large stock of Sideboards, Wardrobes, Book Cases, Cheffoniers, Hat-racks, Hall and Lawn Seats, Dining and Library Tables, Marble and Wood-top Stands; ten different styles of

Folding Bed Lounges,

Spring Bottom Beds, Spring, Cotton, Cotton-Top and Excelsior Mattresses; twenty Parlor Suits of the best styles and designs; also a large stock of Upholstered Platform Rockers; a full line of Rattan, Carpet Seat and Back, Reed Canes, Outside Cane, Perforated, Folding, Camp, Dining, Library and;

Office Chairs!

We do not advertise an empty house but a LAKE FOUR-STORY BUILDING FULL of the best goods, comprising the greatest variety of Styles and calculated to attract the attention of the most exacting trade.

Call and see our stock. We take pleasure in showing it and giving prices.

HENRY ORT

East Second Street, Maysville.

SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC--TRY IT.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.

ANALYSIS OF MR. BLISS' INDIGNATION AGAINST THE TREASURY.

The Reason Why He Objects to the Enforcement of the Revenue Laws—Subject of Charges—Bonds—Waiting Results—Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The interview with Mr. George B. Bliss, principal in the Trust, read with great interest by the treasury officials was done duty it is, under Secretary Manning's instructions, to go forward in the enforcement of the revenue laws. The alleged "head centre" of the special agent was asked what he thought of Mr. Bliss' interview. He replied: "It plainly proves that Secretary Manning's instructions on the subject of representations made him hit the nail on the head." The interview at January 31, last, the gold account of which coin shows the following deliveries up to May 23, 1861, the coloures of which were evidently performed by the coiner, Mr. B. F. Taylor, at the auspices of the Confederate or state government:

February 13, 1861	$ 8,500.00
March 8 27	110,000.00
April 30	54,000.00
May 23	44,000.00

Total coloures of which there is no printed record.

At the gold bullion fund I was only $10,788 when the mint was seized, and the $150,000 additional was subsequently coined, the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power. It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of undervaluation has thrived so much. This departure from legal method is a subject of infinite importance.

Secretary Manning in 1877, similair to the recent letter of Mr. Bliss, said:

"The coinage of money is a system of

trust, provided for twenty years, and even if it is legal it involves so much gross injustice to importers of interest that I don't believe it is legal to allow it."

"It is not within the knowledge of the department that any reputable merchant who buys his gold coin at par can get it back at par in the regular order, but numbers of such

merchants throughout the country have expressed the greatest satisfaction with it.

The Reorganizing board shall appraise the value of the merchandise by all reasonable ways and means in their power.

It never occurred to me to demand that they be coined in the form of a police court, as has been done for years past, and under which the system of underval

THE EVENING BULLETIN

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1885.

Of 4,400 clerks in the postal service, up to this time, there have been 700 removed.

BLUNGRASS, the Kentucky horse, won the Cumberland Plate at Carlisle, England, Monday.

Michigan has passed a law compelling all railroad companies to use the automatic car coupler.

The estimated yield of wheat in Missouri is 3-10 bushels per acre, or a total of 11,33,000 bushels.

TWENTY-NINE murderers from the India Territory are confined in the United States jail at Fort Smith.

By its conservative policy, the Cabinet of Lord Salisbury is rapidly winning the confidence of the people.

EX-GOVERNOR UNDERWOOD's loss on the military encampment at Philadelphia will not exceed, it is estimated, $30,000.

At a mass meeting of Republicans at Falmouth, P. E. Morgan was nominated for State Representative from Pendleton County.

The Ninth Kentucky Volunteers, U. S. A., will hold a re-union at Fountain Run, Monroe County, September 13th and 14th.

EX-GOVERNOR NOYES, of Ohio, recently appointed one of the Government directors for the Union Pacific railroad has declined to accept.

The number of new cases of cholera reported from the infected districts of Spain, Monday, amounted to 1,674, and the number of deaths 812.

It is not drought which is troubling Kansas this year, but such a cold, wet season that potatoes are rotting in the ground before they have a chance to begin growing.

FIRST CONTROLLER DURHAM, after a full investigation, has concluded to re-open Colonel Robert H. Crittenden's accounts at United States Marshal for Kentucky, for final settlement.

DR. A. Brooks, ex-Kentuckian, the recent Prohibition nominee for governor of Missouri, has become the supreme master workman of the A. O. U. W. for the United States and Canada.

The great Lorillard Stake for three-year-olds went to the winner between $6,000 and $8,000, was won at Monmouth Park, Monday, by Wanda. The winners of the event were Pontiac, Thackeray, Letitia, Felicia and Quebec.

The culture of hemp has been revived in Central Illinois the present season. The fibre is to be sold to the manufacturers of twine for self-binders. It is thought that the demand for hemp for this purpose will cause this crop to be extensively raised in the future.

An exchange says: The London Telegraph pays the farewell and touching tribute to ex-Minister Lowell in the simple eulogy: "He won all our hearts." But when Gen. Schenck left the same post he had won all their hearts, clubs, diamonds and spades with the accompanying chips.

COUNTRY POINTS.

M. OLIVES.

Miss Nettie Hill is visiting friends in Manchester.

George Myall, of Mayfield, visited Olivet Sunday.

We had a good rain Monday and crops are growing rapidly.

Miss Anna Brown, a very fascinating blonde of Carlisle is visiting Miss Mary Wells.

The Fourth of July passed off quietly. The day was hot and sultry, but satisfied the expectation of the most sanguine. Thomas Rigg opened the exercises with a patriotic speech, and the singing of hymns were Judge O. S. Denning, Rev. M. Wells, Rev. J. Hall, of Mayfield; Rev. Elbridge and H. W. Moore, of Frankfort. The band and the string band of Boier & Co. furnished the music. The set in the evening was a grand success.

Harris.

Magnificent rainfall on Monday afternoon greatly beautified the growing corn and tobacco.

And how the old Shannon meeting house is inspiring for a soul-saving revival service.

The revival meetings are still in progress in the Christian Church, under the leadership of Dr. C. C. Jones.

Mr. Charles Blane had his McCormick binder out on Tuesday last, cutting his Kansas grass. He was more than enough for seed.

Mr. A. C. White sold his fine buggy, harness and saddle to Mr. John D. Edwards. The purchaser had a match for him and wanted him to make up a horse team.

Mr. Newell, of St. Louis, is a great boy in the country. He is only thirty-five days old and while worthy of the best name of any boy in the country, he is a great boy.

Elder T. M. Myers, after a series of successful and most edifying meetings of eight days was compelled to leave the country. He has his new friends and converts added, leaving on his return to Louisville, however, a considerable amount of pocket money for a summer's vacation and the mountains of Nevada. The meetings were well attended, and the prayers of those he has met are happy will go up for his speedy restoration.

The Iowa Methodists have decided to form a new conference. The idea is to have the governor and judge of supreme court, the former the Lieutenant governor and superintendent of public instruction.

Great excitement and threats of lynching at Raleigh, N. C. over an armed band of his own church, makes him very popular. The sects love him. When under the inspiration of his eloquent tongue, he recites out and brilliant passages of exquisite beauty the finest word paintings—those thrown upon the canvas. He is a growing man.

FATAL JIMSON WEED.

A. DINNER Party Poisoned by Wine—One Dead, Another Dying.

BURLINGTON, Ia., July 9.—A fatal poisoning case is reported from Scott County, a family named Baker entertained a dinner party, at which a dozen persons were present, nearly all being relatives. At dinner time, the host said to his wife, "I think it had been placed a few days ago." The bottle had recently contained liniment made from roots of the Jimson weed.

His eyes were half closed, and he was in agony when they awoke and rolled on the floor.

Dr. Bell was called, who summoned an other physician. The patient had vomited, and was propped up by a pump, pump could be used. Mr. Beddoe, who was seemingly the least ill, died in an hour. Under heroic treatment the five other persons were eased of their pain, but all had to remain in bed.

It is to be hoped they recovered, and are now well.

THE LIQUOR MEN.

They Would Rather Mix With Cold Water Than Empty Promises.

CINCINNATI, July 9.—"How are the saloons going to vote this time?" was asked of Howard, president of the Saloon Protective Association.

"We will vote for Dr. Leonard," Mr. Hunt replied, jocosely. "But seriously, said he, "I believe the Prohibition candidate would be acceptable to a great many of us."

As the Republicans are the only Republican

Democratic candidate will be.

We know just where Dr. Leonard and his party stand. We are directly and openly opposed to the liquor bill, and it is to be hoped that the public port an enemy who has the courage of his own convictions than a presumable friend who will use every opportunity to deal as craft and treacherous as we know that Dr. Leonard again will, but in the public's judgment, the Democratic or Republican publicans. Judge Foraker talks whisky to a whisky audience and Prohibition to a Prohibition audience, and has been the history of the two parties ever since Ohio became a state."

CHURCH CYCLONE CRANKS.

Then There are Others Who are Anti-Cyclone Cranks.

CUMMING, Ga., July 9.—There is a church in Milton county, with a schism upon the number of its members, and a division which was considered by the majority of the church members as a flagrant violation of their doctrine and a temptation to God with the face of the earth.

As the pitiful cyclone was far less fearful of cyclones than of the wrath of God, the organization itself turned into a church under the name of the Cyclone Primitives, whereas the old church has assumed the name of Anti-Cyclone Primitives.

The Bookine Murder.

CINCINNATI, July 9.—The trial of murderer John J. McNamee, Martin Smith and Geo. A. Smith, which was on the docket for hearing, was continued until Friday afternoon at the request of the state. Dr. McNamee requested that the continuance be made shorter, as they wanted a speedy hearing as they were locked up without bail.

Fatal Incarceration.

ATLANTA, July 9.—W. G. Graham, a wealthy citizen of York county, South Carolina, while butchering a calf some time ago accidentally inclosed a small pimple in his hand with the hilt of the animal. The day after he was seized with a severe pain in his hand, followed by swelling, which finally resulted in death.

THE CONDENSER.

Fresh, Fifty News Items, Boiled Down for the Hurried Reader.

Missouri yields at the rate of 7-8-10 bushels to the acre.

Lew J. North, an old and widely known circus rider, is dead.

Reports from Missoouri and Kansas indicate splendid crops.

Louis Rice has been delivered to the civil authorities by the sheriff.

T. D. Ruffin, Sam Kolar's murderer, broke jail at Little Rock, and escaped.

Salt Lake City command intercessor half-mast-ing stars and stripes on the Fourth.

Thos. Cunningham, Troy, N. Y., countfeting for years, has just been caught.

Georgia crops are flourishing. Cotton is 97 per cent, and wheat 80 per cent of a full crop.

Individual deposits subject to check, 204,992 Due to Other National Banks.....

Due to State Banks and Bankers.....

Total.....

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in.....

Surplus fund.....

Undivided profits.....

Interest on capital.....

Individual deposits subject to check, 204,992 Due to Other National Banks.....

Due to State Banks and Bankers.....

Total.....

STATE OF KENTUCKY, No. 1.

COUNTY OF MASON, No. 1.

1. Thomas Weiss, a German, who had a named bank, do solemnly swear that he is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

THOMAS W. WEISS, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of July, 1885.

J. P. P. RILEY,

Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:

J. M. MITCHELL,

Director.

S. A. PIPER,

Director.

P. D. ANDERSON,

Dental Surgeon.

Office and residence: No. 12 Court Street, dit.

DISINFECTION NOTICE.

The firm of Childs, Robinson & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

DISINFECTION.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

GEORGE W. SULMER,

JOHN W. CHILDREN,

EDGAR W. ROBINSON,

Maysville, Ky., July 1885.

The business will be conducted at the old office, No. 43 Market street, by E. A. Robinson & Co.

8th & 10th.

NOTICE.

The firm of W. G. Gian & Co.,

THE EVENING BULLETIN

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1885.

We mean by these lines
That notice is filed,
If the weather don't quit
Our owl will be "biled."

There are 8,500 Knights of Labor in Lynn, Mass.

The Bourbon fair begins September 1st and continues two days.

A large quantity of tobacco has been delivered in Mayfield this week.

Ninety-one degrees the shade was what the thermometer said yesterday afternoon.

Messrs. A. C. SPAR & Co., are at work again and are manufacturing twenty-five thousand brick a day.

Mr. H. L. NEWELL is improving his business house at the corner of Third and LimeStreet streets.

The colored Oddfellows of Carlisle and Mayfield will make an excursion to Lexington on the 17th instant.

COLONEL ROBERT BALDWIN, the new Deputy Revenue Collector is fairly in the traces and is working like an old stager. He anticipates no difficulty in the discharge of his duties.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of Mr. Littleton Hill's New Idea Grocery Store printed elsewhere. He is offering some very low prices as will be seen by the list printed to-day. Give him a call.

BANK STOCK FOR SALE.

A number of shares of First National Bank stock, [Mayfield] will be offered at public sale at the court house door, at 12 o'clock m., on Monday next, County Court day, in blocks of five shares each or less to suit purchasers.

COLONEL ED. PORTER THOMPSON, of Owen County, it is announced will rewrite the history of the Orphan Brigade of Confederate troops. The history will be carefully written, and will be a complete history in detail of the conspicuous part played by this splendid body of soldiers.

The Flemingsburg Times says that some one attempted to assassinate W. Auxier, near Hillsboro, by shooting a ball through his clothes, and afterwards his house was fired three times in one night and finally destroyed. Auxier was an important witness against Dick Downey for murdering Wm. Humphreys.

The moonlight fete by Hunt's Reed and Brass Band will take place on Friday and Saturday evenings at the beautiful grounds on Poplar Avenue, East Mayfield. There will be every facility for enjoyment, including music, dancing, etc. The public is cordially invited. No objectionable characters will be allowed on the grounds.

Messrs. RUMYANT & HOCKER are already preparing for the fall trade, and with a view of closing out their stock of summer dry goods, are offering them at prices that certainly must induce people to buy. They have decided to close out quickly the line of articles named in an advertisement elsewhere, which have fixed the time at fifteen days. You should call early.

Sales of Land.

The following transfers of real estate have been recorded at the office of the County Clerk since our last report:

Alce K. Adamson and husband to Robert Ficklin, Jr., home and lot on north side of Second street, west of Wall; consideration $1 and one-half acre.

E. R. Hord and others to Josephine B. Newell, home and lot on south side of State Street, west of Wall; consideration, $1 and love and affection.

John E. Parker to Mrs. Parker, one-eighth interest in about thirty acres of land, Flemingsburg; turnpike consideration, $20.

Kenneth M. Hord to same, undivided one-eighth interest in tract of land; consideration, $75 and other consideration.

John E. Parker to Mrs. Parker, one-eighth interest in same tract of land; consideration, $20.

John E. Parker to same, undivided one-eighth interest in tract of land; consideration, $75 and other consideration.

John E. Parker to Mrs. Parker, one-eighth interest in same tract of land; consideration, $20.

John E. Parker to Charles Lane, house and lot in Washington; consideration, $20.

Lucy M. Worth to John S. Hay, house and lot on southwest corner of Fourth and Main Streets, Hillsboro; consideration, $100 and Richard Baker, by committee to Fannie Baker house and lot in Washington; consideration, $100 and John E. Parker to Jas. H. Wallingford, grantor, in his name, in the amount of $100 on Orange humpike; consideration, $100.

The Vancburg Courier says: At Blue Creek, Adams County, Ohio, on Friday last, Joseph Ellis, a Kentuckian, whose home near Augusta, who had been trying tobacco at Blue Creek, filled himself with whisky at John Sanderson's saloon and started down to the mill. At the mill he amused himself by yelling for Jeff Davis. William Fields, a farmer living near by, told him to shut up, whereupon Ellis, without further parley, whipped out a revolver and shot Fields through the body. Fields was carried to the hospital, and though he recovered, he died a few days later.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

A pleasing story in grammar is told of a school girl. She was parsing and came to the word "quarrel." "A quarrel," she said, "is plural, because it takes two to make one." —[Harper's Courier.]

Our fondles are oft destroyed.

But why in tears bewail our sight?

A world of living won't set right.

Then we're back to the old woe.

But let the man walk whom you owe.

He'll do enough of that for you.

—Boston Courier.

A Maine teamster says: I must start the most obstinate horse by taking him out of the shafts and leading him around in a circle until he is giddy. And now we are disturbed by the question, how is he going to lead him around in a circle without starting him?

A French lady, on her arrival in this country, was careful to eat only such dishes as she was acquainted with; and when she was promised a repast of a dish to which she was politically averse: "No, I thank you. I eat only my own acquaintances." —Oil City Derrick.

A Political Office was occupied in the street. "Where have you been?" "I have been up to see Mr. Smith, the Politician, and had a long talk with him." "That's strange. He was at his house not ten minutes ago, and was told that he was not to go there again." "I am not afraid to go there again." "You don't say so!" exclaimed the Politician. "Who are you?" "I'm a meat Bill!" —[New York Sun.]

Sunday School Pic-nic.

The Sunday school of the Southern Methodist Church, Sardinia, Ky., will give an entertainment in Uncle Tom Sut's woodland pasture, on Saturday, July 18th. The school will form in line in Sardinia and headed by the hand will march to the woods, and will be addressed by good speakers. There will also be a moonlight fete at night in the church yard in Sardinia. The yard will be beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns and an effort will be made to have everything new in the way of dressing the tables. All are invited.

Messrs. J. A. Jackson & Son, of Mayfield, have just received a large importation of fruit cans, Mason jars, wire top and stone jars direct from the manufacturers, all of which will be sold at prices to suit the times.

PERSONALS.

Messrs. J. H. Pecor and John Walsh left for the East yesterday.

Mr. J. F. Pogue, of Cincinnati, is visiting his father, Mr. Henry E. Pogue.

Judge Cole is expected to bring his son Allen home the latter part of this week.

Dr. Charles Wardle and wife are spending a few days at Cincinnati, visiting their relatives.

Miss Linda Williams, of Covington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. P. Gooding, of Mayfield.

Mrs. Eliza Tomlinson, widow of Capt. W. B. Tomlinson, died at Ripley on the 6th, instant.

Mr. H. Green, formerly conductor on the Kentucky Central has sold his interest in the commission business at Cincinnati and will open a grocery store at Covington.

The Maysville Female Institute.

An old friend and patron of this institution who feels an abiding interest both in the school and in its worthy principal, makes this appeal to other friends and patrons:

In consideration of the circumstances, well known to all, which make it impossible for Miss Parke to give her personal attention to the matters of securing places for the coming year, I, your old and dear mother, would like to call upon you to consider herself a "committee of one" to solicit in behalf of the school, Miss Parke's physician assures her, by her recent letter, that she will be able to fill her old accustomed place at the head of the school. A full corps of able assistants will be employed in every department, and the school will be in full operation.

At the Equity Grocery you can get as good a cent for 40 cents per pound as D. E. Dill will sell you for 50 cents.

73rd G. W. GEENE, Proprietor.

Rumy & Hocker offer 20 cent India linon at 12½ cents, 25 cent quality at 18 cents, 35 cent quality at 25 cents. Check with plain drapery goods, 15 and 20 cents, 35 cent quality at 25 cents.

As an evidence of our gratitude to Miss Parke for many hours of devotion to our interests, let us each and all do what we can for the continuation and preservation of the fine-honored school over which she presides.

A Western citizen, who had been worsted in a fight, was told that he could collect damages for his injuries. "I collected," replied mournfully. "I collected everything but a piece of my left ear and two front teeth; I couldn't find those."

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the bowels, loss of appetite, pain in the rectum, and sometimes diarrhea. If he has some affection of the kidneys or scrophulus, piles will be present. If the piles are present, as faintness, uneasiness of the stomach, etc., a moluske, like persimmon, will be present. After the piles have been removed, warm, is a common attendant. The rectum is often affected, and the application of Dr. Boisseau's File Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, will take away the rectal trouble. Petroleum, and affecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Dr. Boisseau Medical Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Geo. C. Wood, druggist.

If Martin Luther

Had only been able to get a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters in his spell of nervousness and great physical debility, it would have been a mighty blessing to him and a wonderful help to his work. But he lived 40 years before Brown's Iron Bitters had been heard of. Literary workers and busy clergymen know the advantages of this great iron tonic. The Rev. D. F. Manly, Tamico, Tenn., says, "Nervousness prostration and indigestion seriously affected my health. Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me at once."

The Bessemer Steel Works of Troy, N. Y., have resumed operations.

The strike of the Brooklyn, N. Y., Stockade Makers is still in progress.

The Knights of Labor, in Philadelphia, have established a co-operative carpet manufacturer.

The gambler's wife always speaks of her husband as her better-half.—(Chicago Tribune.)

The Knights of Labor in New Hampshire are trying to procure the adoption of the ten-hour factory law in that State.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better half discoving it.

A Taran, who has lived for years among the cowboys, says that many of them are graduates of Eastern colleges. Men cling to college customs long after graduation.

It is said that late hours tell on man.

This is especially true if the clock strikes when he is attempting to get into the house without his better

